LOGIN

As a user, I can login via my Twitter account credentials from the "Sign in with Twitter" button.

- The user will enter their username and password for their twitter account. If they successfully login, the pop-up disappears and they will be redirected to the main page of the app. If not, an error message will appear in the pop up that says the username or password doesn't match.